

Financial and Administrative Department

The Department shall address issues related to the preparation and control of the implementation of the budget of the LDC, the holding of accounting records, the management and accounting of personnel resources, the organisation and coordination of records, the collection, accounting, maintenance and use of information valuable documents in accordance with the requirements of the State supervisory authorities of the Latvian National Archives Foundation in accordance with the relevant activities of the budget institutions. regulatory enactments and requirements, implementation of procurement and operation policies, provision of economic activity, organisation of labour protection measures.

Employees

Departments

Finance department

Administrative department

<https://www.ldc.gov.lv/en/departament/financial-and-administrative-department>