

Department of Methodology

Coordinate the development and updating of the methodology for public services, taking into account developments in livestock farming:

in the field of electronisation of services;

registration of animals, holdings and herds;

in the field of public services;

the circulation and accounting of animal identification means;

cooperation with international organisations ICAR, IDF inform the public regarding the regulatory enactments regulating the registration of herds, holdings, animals and persons involved in the circulation of feed thereof, the identification of animals, as well as breeding.

Employees

Evija Skujiņa

Director of the Department

 +371 67095067

Departments

Information society policy department

Electronic Services Development and Enforcement Division

Production and Data Analysis Division

<https://www.ldc.gov.lv/en/department/department-methodology>